Faith and Art

Maranatha

Let the trees all clap their hands.
Let the stones all jump for joy.
Let the earth shake off its bonds.
Let the peoples all rejoice.

*Maranatha, our Maker,
Who maketh all things right,
Maranatha, our Healer,
Come rise, o healing light.*

Let the peoples all delight
in the Messianic light.
Let the whole earth be glad
at the making all things right.

Let the poor be lifted up from the ashes and the dust.
Let the proud climb down from their thrones
And we shall sing as one.

Speak, O Lord

Speak, O Lord, as we come to You
To receive the food of Your Holy Word.
Take Your truth, plant it deep in us;
Shape and fashion us in Your likeness,

That the light of Christ might be seen today
In our acts of love and our deeds of faith.
Speak, O Lord, and fulfill in us
All Your purposes for Your glory.

I'm Gonna Live So God Can Use Me

Blessing

Matthew 28:16-20 (CEB)

Now the eleven disciples went to Galilee, to the mountain where Jesus told them to go. When they saw him, they worshipped him, but some doubted. Jesus came near and spoke to them, "I've received all authority in heaven and on earth. Therefore, go and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, teaching them to obey everything that I've commanded you. Look, I myself will be with you every day until the end of this present age."

Prayer of Confession

Gracious and Merciful God,
We turn our hearts to you as broken people.

O God, deliver us.

We confess that we have not always been your faithful disciples.

O God, deliver us.

We have not taken seriously enough your commandment to go and make disciples of all nations.

O God, deliver us.

Instead, we are often complacent to be with people like ourselves, rather than reaching out to those who think,
act, believe, look, and live differently than we do.

O God, deliver us.

Help us to be your disciples on fire to spread the Gospel of love to a world desperate to hear it.

O God, help us.

(Continue)

Help us to be your people who thirst for justice for Black people and the LGBTQIA+ community.

O God, help us.

We thank you for welcoming us just as we are, and for forgiving our shortcomings.

O God, we thank you.

In the name of your son who embodies your mercy and grace.

Amen.

Friends, hear the good news! In Christ, we are forgiven! Thanks be to God!

The Lord's Prayer

New Zealand/Maori Anglican Liturgy

Eternal Spirit, Earth-maker, Pain-bearer, Life-giver, Source of all that is and that shall be, Father and Mother of us all, Loving God, in whom is heaven:

The hallowing of your name echo through the universe!
The way of your justice be followed by the peoples of the earth! Your heavenly will be done by all created beings!
Your commonwealth of peace and freedom sustain our hope and come on earth. With the bread we need for today, feed us. In the hurts we absorb from one another, forgive us. In times of temptation and test, strengthen us. From trials too great to endure, spare us. From the grip of all that is evil, free us. For you reign in the glory of the power that is love, now and forever. Amen.
